McCAMLEY RECEIVES MORE ENDORSEMENTS FROM KEY ELECTED OFFICIALS

Former State Representative J. Paul Taylor (Doña Ana County), Former Capitan Mayor Benny Coker, Socorro County Commission Chairman Jay Santillanes, and Sierra County Commissioner Walter Armijo Endorse McCamley

(Las Cruces, NM) – Today congressional candidate and Doña Ana County Commissioner Bill McCamley announced the support of four key Democratic past and present elected officials in New Mexico’s Second Congressional District: Former State Representative J. Paul Taylor (Doña Ana County), Former Capitan Mayor Benny Coker, Socorro County Commission Chairman Jay Santillanes, and Sierra County Commissioner Walter Armijo.

“I’m very grateful for the support of these respected public officials,” said McCamley. “As their endorsements show, our campaign is continuing to pick up speed and strength.”

“The field of candidates in this race has been continuously changing over the past few months, but we’re still talking about the same things we’ve been talking about since the beginning—bringing a commitment to focus on results to Washington, so that we can get the change this nation so desperately wants and needs. Our message continues to resonate strongly.”

McCamley has previously received endorsements from eight current elected Democratic officials in the Second District: Public Regulation Commissioner Sandy Jones, State Representatives Antonio Lujan (Doña Ana County), Andy Nuñez (Doña Ana County), and Nate Cote (Doña Ana and Otero Counties), Doña Ana County Commissioner Dolores Saldaña-Caviness, Eddy County Commissioner Tony Hernandez, and Carlsbad City Councilmen Manny Anaya and Jeff Diamond. He has also been endorsed by the New Mexico Building and Construction Trades Council, which represents over 7,000 New Mexico workers.

Since declaring his candidacy in April, McCamley has put over 40,000 miles on his car, traveling to every county in the district to listen to the concerns of constituents. He has also raised over $280,000.
