

Juarez from the Eyes of a Human Rights Worker

Due to threats on her life, Cipriana Jurado of the Juarez, Mexico based Center for Information and Solidarity with Working Women (CISO) recently received political asylum from the U.S. government and now resides in New Mexico. Join us for an evening with this courageous, long-time human rights champion, and learn about the realities on the ground in Juarez.

When: Wednesday, August 31st 6:00-7:30pm

Where: Albuquerque Center
for Peace and Justice
202 Harvard SE 87106

 *This event is free. Food will be served & Spanish to English translation will be provided.
For more information, Call TRACY at 505-247-8832.
Sponsored by the SouthWest Organizing Project.*

Cipriana Jurado was born in Ciudad Juarez. She has defended human rights for over 20 years with a particular focus on maquiladora working conditions and the huge number of murders of women in Juarez.