

Citizens for Global Solutions

CITIZENS FOR GLOBAL SOLUTIONS
ANNUAL CONFERENCE
SANTA FE 2005

GLOBAL SOLUTIONS, LOCAL CONNECTIONS: making the global local, one activist at a time

You are invited! Join us for a weekend loaded with fun, learning, entertainment and action!

La Fonda Hotel
Santa Fe, New Mexico
November 4-6

www.globalsolutions.org/santafe2005

WHAT, WHEN, WHERE:

“Global Solutions, Local Connections” will bring together renowned authors, leading policymakers, and activists from New Mexico and beyond to discuss how we can work together to find solutions to problems facing citizens of New Mexico, the United States, and the world — challenges like climate change, renewable energy, water conservation, genocide, globalization, and United Nations reform. Come learn more about the issues affecting New Mexico and the world — and more about how you can take action and make a difference!

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

- * Keynote address by Governor Bill Richardson, New Mexico
- * Global Solutions Film Festival at the Lensic performing arts center
- * Live broadcasts by KUNM-FM, New Mexico Public Radio
- * Meet people who are making a difference in New Mexico and the world — peacekeepers and peacemakers, authors and activists, filmmakers and foreign policy specialists, and more...

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

Everyone is welcome! Come individually or as part of a larger community or student group. We've specially designed tracks for policy makers, community leaders, and educators as well as students and grassroots activists.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION:

Register today! We've also included a special rate for students. You can register electronically or by snail-mail – the mail-in registration form can be downloaded from our website.

TO REGISTER, VISIT: <http://globalsolutions.org/santafe2005>

Questions? Contact Erica: conference@globalsolutions.org

In collaboration with Americans for Informed Democracy, KUNM-FM 89.9, Santa Fe Council on International Relations, The Society for Law and Global Policy, and Media Rights & Arts Engine, Inc.

Citizens for Global Solutions is a national non-partisan membership organization that promotes peace, justice, and freedom in a democratically governed world. We are dedicated to the idea that the world must find solutions to those problems that no one nation, not even the United States, can solve by itself. To that end, our educational fund works to engage American citizens, our advocacy arm lobbies U.S. officials, and our political action committee supports candidates who share our values.